

Teen CELL Program 2008

(Character Employment Leadership Life Skills)

The mission of the CELL Program is to prepare teens for employment and leadership in the community through character development and hands on experience

Coordinator:	Barbara Bennett Oakley Recreation Center 513-321-9320
Location:	Cincinnati Recreation Commission Oakley Recreation Center 3882 Paxton Ave. (Hyde Park Plaza) Cincinnati, Ohio 45209 513-321-9320
Target Group	Ages 13 – 17 ($425/participant)
Program Dates:	June 9 – August 15
Program Days & Times:	Monday – Friday, 8:30am-2:30pm
Field Trip Dates & Times	June 9 – June 20, 10:00am-2:30pm
Volunteer Dates & Times	June 30 – July 28, 10:00am-2:30pm
Method of Instruction:	Formal presentations by business professionals, professionals from the banking and finance industry, motivational speakers, etc. Individual self help projects such as personality profiles, resume writing, interview skills, etc. Field trips to various workplace settings Volunteer opportunities at job sites and at appropriate community service settings. Group bonding and recreational opportunities